Museum of Rural Life and Traditions "Casa di Fabrica" – Cultural itinerary for Elementary School

Not far from the Old Town of San Marino, in Montecchio, you can have the opportunity to enter in the old farmhouse called "Casa di Fabrica" to relive the past life. You can see with your own eyes all the tools that characterize that period. The Museum of Rural Life and Traditions shows, for example, the work of an old wooden loom or some utensils for farmers. A journey in search of the traditions, the simplicity and the intelligence of the past in order to discover the life of the farming ancestors.

Duration: 1 hour approx.

€ 3.00 per person

Free entrance for Teachers

The hidden treasure of San Marino – Cultural itinerary for Elementary and Secondary School

Theatrical guided tour that combines theoretical and practical experience, with the interactive participation of students. There will be moments in which the students will learn the history of the oldest Republic in the world in a funny and rigorous way at the same time. Even the students themselves will be involved: they have to solve some quizzes, which will help them to discover the Old Town, through a path that will make them aware of the main monuments that characterize the Republic.

Duration: 1 hour 30 minutes

Groups up to 25 people: € 200.00

Free entrance for Teachers

Little Chef at work – Cultural itinerary for Elementary and Secondary School
